My mother is the most loving and warm person I have ever known. She spent her life being a mom to 5 children and grandmother to 12. She spent sometime being a hairdresser and going to school for that. After years of working in a shop, she then began working out of our home. When my father passed, she worked in a sock mill in Fort Payne for several years. She retired and became a dedicated Yahtzee player every week. She loved doing that all the way up until her death. She beat lung cancer, stage 4 and stumped the doctors. Her dog, Sissy, was her best friend until her death. She traveled to Las Vegas to live with me for a few years. She resettled back here in Fort Payne, AL. She Died in the same town she was born. She loved doing puzzles. She also loved God and gospel music.
