“ I only knew him for a short time as my neighbor, but he was so much more, He was like a grandfather to me, I adopted him as my papaw and he adopted me as a granddaughter. He was the sweetest, most caring man I ever met. I would go visit and look through photo albums with him, he'd tell me about his family, and how proud he was and talk about his racing days, We would talk for hours about everything, He had the most beautiful soul. I loved him so much, my heart is broken I feel like I have lost my grandfather. I love you papaw/uncle Bob rest in heaven, you will always have a special place in my and my kids hearts.
