“ Boyce Guice

“ My heart is breaking upon hearing this news. Mr. Boyce was my God Father. He was such a kind soul. He loved his kids and their friends. He loved basketball. I'm sure so much more. Those are just some things that stick out in my mind. I remember when I was little, Leigh told me he boxed. And I thought she had the toughest dad in Rainsville! When I would see Mr Boyce out once we were grown, he was always so proud of his grands. Talking about Adam would just light his face up. Leigh and Jon, I'm praying for you all.

“ Boyce was a great friend to me and my family at Robertson Chapel all my growing up years and until I moved to Rome in 1983.

We sang together many times and he led our choir. I loved Boyce and will miss his friendship.

“ Boyce had been a wonderful friend for many years . Our children grew up together. For many years he served as song leader and choir director of my home church . Such a wonderful friend- he will be greatly missed.

“ Boyce dearly loved God, his church, his family, and his friends. He always made an effort to speak to and welcome everyone in the church on Sunday mornings. This included the children especially. He took the time to shake hands and talk to our girls when they were young and then our grandchildren. A parent never forgets those who are kind to their children. Boyce wholeheartedly enjoyed music. He would come in on Sunday morning and say, “Man, you missed a good singing last night”, or “Boy, I heard a good gospel group last night.” He shared lots of his CDs with me to see what I thought about them too.
Our entire family will miss Boyce, but we know he is now singing with the Heavenly choir of angels.

“ We, also, shared a love of gospel music for many years. We have attended southern gospel concerts, conventions and NQC everywhere and would always see our friend Boice. He was a friend and we will miss him. Our sympathy and prayers are with his family.

“ Boyce was a dear friend, and we shared a love of gospel music. In 1971 Robertson's Chapel needed a pianist, and I wanted to play for a church more than anything in the world. I was a seventeen year old kid, had never played for a church service, and I was terrified to play in front of people. Boyce promised me that none of that mattered and that he would help me every step of the way. He did. I cherish the memories of Robertson's Chapel, Boyce Guice, and the many worship services we experienced together over the past fifty years. My thoughts and prayers are for his precious family. I miss my friend. Debra Scogin Lingerfelt

“ Boyce Guice was such a special person who loved his church. It was such a joy to share music with him. As our young adults began to come in and be a part of the church family, Boyce went the extra mile to make them feel welcome and like a part of the family. He supported that group mightily. There will be a void. We will continue to celebrate his life, especially through our music. Your family will be in our prayers in the days ahead.
