“ Brenda and I married we had many sweet conversations together. We also shared some trying times and times of heartbreak, but we always knew the Lord would get us through. I'll forever miss Brenda. I am thankful that she is with the Lord now and is not having to suffer.

I remember the first time we all saw Brenda when we heard Dale had a girlfriend. She came with him to church at Oak Grove Baptist with him at Sylvania one Sunday morning. Jeanese, my sister in law, giggled. Dale's Mom, Ann, giggled, and I thought she was the cutest thing when she walked through that door. We all knew they were meant for each other!
