“ I am deeply sadden by this, Calvin was a good man, full of life and always would bring a smile to you in conversation. He always treated me the same over the years, anytime I would run in to him somewhere.

My condolences to Regina and all the family, may the Lord strengthen you and remember to be absent in the body is to be present with the Lord.

“ I have known Calvin for more than 20 years. He was a kind and generous man and a loving father, grandfather, and husband! He and Regina have welcomed me into their family and loved my daughter, Amy, as their own! I love the Thomas family and wish them peace, grace, and so much comfort that only the Lord can give!
