“ Cameron was a dear friend whose spirit radiated kindness and devotion. His unwavering love for Jesus illuminated every conversation we shared over the years. Cameron's profound faith was a guiding light, leaving an indelible mark on all fortunate to know him. In celebrating his memory, let us cherish the warmth of his words and the depth of his commitment to spreading the love of Jesus.

“ My wife and I met Cameron in Jack's where he was sitting at a table reading his bible. We were blessed with the opportunity to buy his meals on a few occasions. We were in Jacks when the accident occurred. We shall miss him, his smile and our friendship. Till we meet again.
