Mr. Kosteff was a man who loved his family deeply and was a loyal friend. He loved to hunt and teach his grandchildren all about the outdoors. He gave a lot of his life to serve in the U.S. Army and retired as a Sgt Major. He was a distinguished veteran who served in Vietnam. As a retiree he enjoyed political discussions, watching the news, spending time with his grandkids, and hunting. His big personality, his stories, and his infectious laugh will be dearly missed.
