“ I'm thankful for the life, testimony, and Christian witness of this beautiful, precious, praying woman of GOD, Debbie Farley Heaps. We know from scripture that, to be absent from the body, is to be present with the Lord! How precious in the eyes of God, the angels, and all the hosts of heaven, and how they all rejoice, upon the passing of a saint from this mortal, earthly life into eternal LIFE, in the presence of our Lord and Savior! Debbie is more alive now, than ever, and she is healed and whole! Hold onto your memories, dear Farley-Heaps family, one and all, and retell the stories and the memories you have, and in that way comfort your heart and keep her memory alive until you're reunited in heaven one sweet day. I extend my heartfelt sympathy, love, and prayers to my dear friend and sister-in-Christ, Carrie Heaps Smith, and to the entire family, during your time of grief. I pray that you feel God's presence and love embracing you, comforting you, and giving you a peace that passes understanding, and strength and courage for the days ahead. One day, you'll be able to pick up the pieces, heal your heart, and move forward in the life you've been given, in honor of the matriarch of this family, and our Lord. xoxo. Shalom, Sheila Isbell
