“ Deven will be missed by many! The last time I saw Deven was at Coolidge Park in Chattanooga about a year ago. She was just as sweet then as she was in school. She was so excited to be there with her son and husband! I could tell she was truly happy. She shared some stories with me and my mom of memories she had of my brother (Nathan Hicks) who had previously passed away. Once you lose someone you love to hear any memory a person has of that loved one and I was truly grateful for her to share these memories with us. She will be missed by many! I am truly sorry for your loss and I will be praying for peace for her family! God bless!!

“ I hadn't seen Deven since she was living beside Daddy in Pisgah. But, we kept in touch on Facebook. This is the last msg I received from her, it was so sweet. Hey Sue! I seen the video Terry posted of Trevor @ the talent show. So adorable. Funny, sweet, and cute son you have. I was so happy when I watched the video. He looks a lot like you. i love his personality, a very awesome boy you are raising. I imagine you are so proud of him. I liked the Elvis at the end, so cute. Did he win? If not he should have. If he did, he deserved it. (Boys get their awesomeness from their moms, LOL.) Just wanted to let you know that I watched it and enjoyed it and am so proud you have such a spectacular child. SO many kids are shy. You have instilled so much confidence in Trevor. It was very refreshing to see a child with such confidence. He has more confidence at what 9 or ten? then alot of adults ever have. Just wanted to let you know “ I'm Deven 's oldest sister..My memory and one she loved to hear was the day she was born. She was born in Andrews Tx.september,1979..my mother named her Deven after one of her favorite soap opera series,ALL MY CHILDREN..that was big back in 1979. She was supposed to be a boy and my parents were going to name David Patrick Belveal..but she was another little girl (4 of us by this time)...so she then was named Deven Patricia Belveal.
