“ I was so sorry to hear about Dewel's passing. My grandmother was Eva Preston Chambers and my dad was Don. I remember talking with Dewel at decoration at Straight Creek but we have not come for the last several years. we came on Saturday before to put flowers on the graves. Linda we will keep all of yall in our prayers and know that there will be a great reunion one day. God Bless you all.

“ I'm very sorry for your loss. I read the obituary to my 83 year old mom. When i got to the name Joe Brown mom said if he (Joe) lived at Brown Town and lost a daughter in a house fire that we were related to him. She remembers visiting a Joe Brown at Brown Town when she was a child and Joe was her mother's cousin. My grandmother was Goldie Gertrude McClung Gann born in 1901 died in 1984. Her mother was Mary Etta Brown McClung. If you forgot to list a young sister in the list of family members who preceded Dewel Brown in death then we may be related.
