“ Don was a great man and a mentor to all us mechanics at the factory. Quite a prankster too. One day I came into work and told him and Ken I had put a new water pump on my truck. Don sneaked out and poured a bucket of water under my car, came in and told me he was outside and saw a bunch of water under my truck. As you can imagine, I went outside and thought it was leaking. He got me good that day. Don taught me so much about mechanics and we have several heartfelt discussions. He will be missed and I will never forget him.

“ I always thought a lot of Don, not only did we work together for many years but he was also a great friend. Any time I could call him and he would be there. We shared lots of laughs. Don was a real stand up guy, you knew when he was your friend , he would be a true friend. The years we worked together definitely wouldn't have been the same without him there. Even if we didn't talk for a while we could just pick right up where we left off. A true, genuine friend. He will be greatly missed” Jessie Pruitt
