“ The first time I met Donnie, Bob, my husband, and I were visiting Peggy. I visited Peggy, my cousin, often as a child and I wanted to visit her again for a while.

Donnie seemed quite, but very sweet. I realized quickly he was special to Peggy and knew he was her life mate.

I could also tell that he loved Daniel and was happy to see him become a husband and father.

He had an easy smile and though we did not see him except on Facebook,, I knew Peggy was cared for.

It wasn't until Peggy posted pictures of him with his grandchildren that I realized how much joy they brought to him. They found love in his arms and adventure in his walks with them.

I thank God that he took those memories with him to Heaven.

I wish we had more time with him, but I know that he is whole and strong now.

May God watch over the family, left behind, but also left with sweet and precious memories!
