“ It was such a blessing to see Mr.Hiett after all these years. It was an honor to try to help him stay at home with family. Love ,prayers and peace to you all. I had plans to come by but my son came down with sudden high fever and I must work Saturday . I know you were blessed to have him all these wonderful years. I just wish I could have helped him more. Prayers for Mrs. Dixie in the days ahead. God be close to you all.

“ Our hearts are heavy thinking we won't see Uncle Frank for a while but we know heaven is celebrating his homecoming. We won't be at the funeral, we are having a baby shower for one of our grand daughters on Saturday. She lives in Florida and had this planned for some time. Our thoughts and prayers are with everybody and know that we love each and every one of you.
