Gordon was one of the most influential men in my life. He taught me how to be a better Christian man and a better road builder. I am forever grateful for that! Gordon and Mary were foundational to the success of the NCAT Pavement Test Track. It's been operational now for over 23 years because of them. I look forward to seeing him again on the other side!

“ It's a little "unnatural" to talk about Gordon by himself because, in the years that I have known Gordon and Mary, they have been one of the most united and devoted couples I have ever met. They were in sync! What I received from one, I received from both of them: love, acceptance, kindness, generosity, respect, genuine friendship, compassion, wise counsel, as well as an example of hard work and sacrifice for the glory of God and the care of others, and courage in the face of multiple health challenges. But Gordon was a magnet with his ready wit and easy manner. Some of the comments made to me at his passing were, "He had the best hugs," and, "The world is a little drearier place today." My family and I are indeed blessed to have known him as family, friend, and fellow church member. We will miss him - for now. Our prayers go up for Mary and their daughters. - Barbara Richey
