I remember a sweet, loving, big man. I never saw him angry or upset that I know of and have some great memories as a child with my Uncle H.A. Wilborn. Our prayers are with your family.

“ H.A. Wilborn started dating my sister Janet when I about 9 or 10 years old. He soon became like a big brother to me. My Mother always sent either me or my brother Jim along when they went on a date as a chapperone. Jim and I always had fun going to the movies with them. I'm sure Janet wanted to take my brother Jim instead of me because he was always so quiet. I talked to H. A. as much as she did. We all had alot of laughs about that when I got older. Debra, your Dad was a family man, a caring man and a good man. I'll will miss him always. I will be praying for you and Janet my sweet sister and your family.
Love you all.
