“ To the family, I'm very sorry for your loss of this wonderful man. I also worked as a ballroom dance instructor a long time ago and that is how I knew Jack. He helped train me sometimes in dance technique. He was such a pleasure to work with and to know. I'll never forget seeing him glide across the dance floor in his ethereal style. Heaven just gained a fabulous dancer. He had such a funny sense of humor and I don't ever remember seeing him express anger or sadness, only positivity. He sure knew how to throw a dance party! RIP dear Jack.

“ So many beautiful memories of Jack, I hardly know where to begin. A very dear friend and always welcoming, kind and loving. It's true, he never met a stranger and he was always up for a visit on the front porch and sharing his time with others. He will be missed by many.

“ I graduated from High School with Jackie and we had reconnected through Facebook in recent years. My husband was in the band with Jack in high school. He was ways lots of fun and I was hoping we could go to TX and stay at his hotel but just never happened. I know he is going to be missed by many people. Our sincere sympathy to all the family. “ I first met Jack about ten years ago when He took over the management of the Luther Hotel. Jack had a winning smile and a friendly nature. He was an excellent host and took great pride in his 117 year old hotel. Many times Jack would demonstrate his graceful dance moves with guests as partners. Much of Jack's life was dancing , a passion he had since his school days in Ft Payne. I was very fortunate to get to spend the last months of Jack's life with him in Palacios at his hotel. We talked about a wide range of things; his early days, his Navy experience, his marriage to Claire Joy, his family. Jack was a humble man who put his heart and soul into pleasing others. He spent little on himself and lavishly on taking care of his beloved hotel. Many, many of us who frequently stayed at the hotel came to love Jack. He will be sorely missed. May he rest in peace.
