Tribute Wall

“ A tribute to Hedy, my oldest sister! - from her youngest sister, Edith. Though she was sixteen years older than me, Hedy was a loving caring person in my life. She married John when I was just four years old, and my family told me that I expressed a desire to marry someone 'just like John' when I grew up!

John and Hedy were called to share the love of Jesus with those who had never heard of Him, in Brazil. So my main contact with them both was through letters. I kept many of the letters she wrote me from Brazil, and recently I reread them, and was again so touched by her interest in my life while I was getting to know Reuben, the man I married, and having our children. By the way, Reuben is, in many ways, just like John!

Throughout her life, Hedy consistently wrote a letter for my birthday, too, and considering how large her family was, her love for me personally was very meaningful, as was her testimony of God's goodness in her life through the years, also after she became a widow.

Her life continues to inspire me to walk in a life of faith with God.
