“ I woke up this morning thinking about these same verses that my cousin posted about our sweet grandmother, Proverbs 31. She was a wonderful wife, mother & grandmother... I remember growing up being amazed that she had five children... I remember admiring how she was a wonderful help mate to my granddad...If we ever went out shopping for the day, she always wanted to be back before dinner time so she could have supper on the table for my granddad who had put in a hard day's work of being a carpenter... When we would visit her these last few years, she would show me her Bible & tell me that she enjoyed reading it everyday. What an amazing description of a Proverbs 31 woman. I am thankful for the 94 years she had here on earth & that she is enjoying being with Jesus now. 😊
