“ Sherry, so sorry for your lost. Will remember your family in my prayers.

“ I'm sorry I didn't see this sooner. I don't really remember Mr. BAiley but I do remember visiting his home occasionally as a teenager. Angier and I were in the same grade and we're friends. I do remember that Angies parents were strict and very interested in what we were doing. As an adult i now understand and appreciate their concern for their daughters. I am so sorry for your loss, wish I could be there today. Angier if you have a moment give me a ring. It's been a long time. 256-717-7143

“ Bro. Jim was without a doubt one of the kindest Christian gentlemen I have ever had the pleasure of knowing! There have been very few men that I have shed tears with, and for, but bro. Jim is one with which I have done both. His humility was astounding, and yet it was the epitome of the spiritual strength that made Jim who he was! To think that he has now been escorted by angels into Abraham's bosom is a thought that is bittersweet, but the sweetness is such that I shiver at the thought of such joy that he is now experiencing! We love you sis. Jo, Sherrie, and all of the family! You are all in our prayers for the only true comfort that mankind can ever hope for - that which comes from our Creator and God!

“ Mr. Bailey was one of the best! He was a true gentleman and had the kindest of spirits, and I enjoyed every chance to speak with him. His love for Mrs. Bailey, his family, and the Auburn Tigers were always a topic of conversation. Mr. Bailey will be sorely missed by all who knew and loved him. My deepest sympathy to the family.
