“ Jay Randy was the love of my life the stepdad but father to my children we were together for 30 years. He has missed every day. He loved his family. He loved all of us with him. Life was happy and grand. He loved to laugh tell jokes he loved his mother, he was my husband. I love him. He is with our boys two of them in heaven. I love you, my baby. What are you doing? I hope God let me be here another 20 years to get these kids and grandkids . I hope and pray if there's anyway you can get a message to me that you will you promised that you would if you could I love you, baby. My life will never be without you. Thank you for loving me. I love you always and forever your wife.
