“ I met Jerald when we were on Active Duty together in the Navy back in 1964. We had some great times together. He invited me to go home with him one weekend to his parents home in Sand Mountain. I was greatly saddened by his passing. He was a good man. My deepest heartfelt condolences to his family.

“ My fondest memories with Jerald would be going to church with him on Sunday nights. He was a dear and wonderful friend. I love him very much. Bennie Gail Hopper Bethune
