“ Not long after I moved here from Michigan almost 15 years ago. I was employed at Pams Deli in Dutton. Jerry was a regular in the deli and gave me endless grief about being a Dam Yankee...I enjoyed that he never remembered my name but called me Sally each time I had the pleasure to wait on him.. As time went on one day he and I were chatting about my move from Michigan to Dutton AI.. He winked at me and smiled, then told me I don't normally like yankees but " You are ok in my book" I will never forget that day, because that to me meant I was finally home and accepted into the community. I will miss his WINKS, and relentless yankee jokes. I grew to love this man knowing if I was ever in need he wouldn't hesitate to offer help.. Rest in peace Jerry. We'll keep a good eye on your boy.. As we love him as if he were ours...
