“ Aunt Ann and Girls, I am so very sorry for the loss of Uncle Jerome. I will always have cherished memories of him. I remember coming over to your house with Mom and Cheryl and you all playing board games. I remember always being excited to go see him at the Butcher Shop ( and not just because he spoiled us with special treats!). But most of all I will always remember his hugs. I will miss him, but I know that he is in heaven with Grandma and the rest of the gang. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Love, Missy Charbonneau

“ Your in Heaven but your in my heart for always. Always one phone call away we shared our lives. Conversations of challenges and laughter of kids shenanigans. You gave my hand in marriage and joked as we waited for our queue to walk me down the isle. Your love and humor I will carry until we meet again in heaven. My stand in father, uncle and friend. Your advice that day was remember how much you love one another and family is what matters in life. I have lived that life with the man I Love for 49 years and you knew then I would have a happy life you said with just that simple Love always growing . Thank you love you always Elaine.
