“ *We knew Barb & Jerry from their time owning Rockwood Resort. We own a resort that we could look out our back window and see them. I will always appreciate their integrity, honesty, and friendship! I remember Jerry fishing year round, his genuine smile, willingness to help, and his sweet nature, especially around my boys when they were little (they moved away before the boys grew to young men). My heart aches for you Barb. Heaven gained an angel.

“ *Jerry was a kind gentle soul and we will miss him dearly. He was a wonderful friend that we shared many good times with at the fish camp in Lake Placid. We send our love and prayers to Barb and his family. It is a great unexpected loss. Good bye our dear friend, until we meet again.

“ We have known and loved Jerry for 30 years. We first met him at his resort in Branson, Missouri, where we vacationed several times a year. He quickly went from our host to our friend and family member. Jerry and Barb spent winters in Lake Placid, Florida. They often invited us to come visit them at their home in Alabama, as well as their winter home in Florida. We shared Jerry's love of fishing in Florida and have moved from Indiana to a home just a couple of miles from their winter home. We can't imagine a world without Jerry. He was a very good man.
