Jo Ann was born May 24, 1936 and grew up in Geraldine Alabama with her parents and six aunts and one uncle who provided lots of love and lots of family get togethers. She graduated from Geraldine High School in 1954 as Salutatorian of her class. A wonderful couple awarded her a scholarship along with her best friend to attend Holy Name of Jesus Hospital school of nursing where she graduated in 1957. She used her degree to live a life of service as a public health nurse for Dekalb County for almost 30 years. She met her husband Jackie during a senior high school dance and they married on November 3, 1957. They shared a wonderful life together raising their two daughters and being an integral part of the Collinsville community, especially within the Baptist church. Her life was a testament to her faith and she served in Sunday School and was always a part of the committee to provide meals for various occasions within the church. She had a green thumb, loved beautiful flowers and could keep poinsettias alive for years. She enjoyed pictures of her family beyond measure and was always waiting for shutterfly envelopes in the mail. She loved to bake and eat desserts. Her specialty and the family favorite was pecan pie. She was a devoted wife, best of all possible mothers, loving aunt, great friend to many and a wonderful grandmother and great-grandmother.

Services will be Monday, May 12th at Collinsville Baptist Church with visitation at 2:00 pm and funeral at 3:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, contributions to Collinsville Baptist Church would be appreciated.

“ *She was a dedicated and loving wife. I know she is at peace being back with Mr. Myers again.
She stayed dedicated and persevered even in the days when things weren't easy any longer.
These two people were some of the most honest and nonjudgemental Christians I've ever met. They truly aimed to be as close to Christ as possible and it showed in their lives and home.*
