“ I’m so sad to read this news. I always loved Joel. My fondest memory was when I was a little girl at Uncle Arvel’s house before Granddad Bouldin’s funeral, he was messing with me and I turned to run and he tried to grab me and it tore my bow on my dress. He was so embarrassed but it was a funny memory that I’ve never forgotten. Probably 60 years ago. I love all my sweet cousins!

We went to visit Joel and Betty a few weeks ago and before we left he told me that I needed to get that big orange T off my shirt and get an A instead..so glad we got to see him again. Scarlett Bouldin May
