

Joleen Ann Green

March 19, 1957 - February 18, 2024

In loving memory of Joleen Gies Green, born on March 19, 1957, in San Diego, California. A proud alumna of Granite Hills High School, Joleen was an avid swimmer and cherished member of the swim team. Known for her artistic talents, Joleen found joy in china painting and floral arrangements.

Her professional journey led her to Barnicle Enterprises, where she dedicated her life, forming meaningful connections with the customers she served. Joleen's infectious sense of humor and larger than life personality touched the lives of many, making laughter a constant presence in her company.

She found immense happiness in her travels with David, exploring through cruises, road trips and cherishing moments with her family and friends.

Joleen is survived by devoted husband, David Green, and leaves behind a legacy through her daughter, Nicole (Brandon), and son, Linden (Heather), along with five beloved grandchildren (Hannah Madeleine, Samantha, Claire, and Riggins). She is also survived by her brother John.

Joleen's warm spirit and laughter will be dearly missed, but her memory will forever be a source of inspiration and love.
