Judy Ann Gillilan

August 13, 1954 – May 19, 2025

Judy Ann Gillilan, born Judy Ann Duncan on August 13, 1954, passed away peacefully in Rainsville, Alabama. A devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, and friend, Judy's life was defined by her deep love for family and her unwavering commitment to caring for those she held dear.

Judy is survived by her daughter, Christy Daugherty; her grandchildren, Carlita Loose, Dillan Goble, Dekota Goble, Dixie Daugherty, and Robbie Daugherty; and her great-grandchildren, Christopher, Felix, and Ember. She is also survived by her brother, Frank Duncan, who remained close throughout her life.

Judy's legacy lives on in the lives she touched with her compassion, strength, and loving spirit. She spent her life selflessly putting others first, always offering a warm heart and open arms to her family. Whether through a kind word, a comforting presence, or a home-cooked meal, Judy made sure those around her felt safe and loved.

A memorial service to celebrate Judy's life will be held at a later date.

She will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
