“ Ms Karen, so many memories of this sweet lady that I've known for more than forty years.
God blessed me with a dear friend knowing her. May God bring comfort to her dear family.

I loved Karin because you always knew where she stood. She was bold and straight-forward and I have always loved people like that because there was never a hidden agenda with her. She had nothing but my utmost respect, and I will miss her wonderful amusing smile. God bless you Dana and all the family in your loss.
