“ Kelly was one of the dearest friends, a mentor, was like a father to me and was like a grandfather to my daughter. I am saddened by our loss. I will miss him, will miss his encouragement, his positive outlook on life, and the sincere council he would always give. Kelly and Nell was loved by those who knew them, and will be missed. I am blessed to have had such a dear friend as Kelly and the Hicks family. I am grieved by the loss of such a wonderful friend. Terry Lyons

“ Awwww. Mr. Kelly was such a sweet, sweet, man. I never encountered him when he was anything but cordial, friendly, enthusiastic, and seemed pleased to see me. Though related by marriage, he always seemed a blood relative. He and my parents were great friends. Heaven is richer and the world has lost a sweet smile.
