“ I'm not sure if this is the same Clanton Whiteside of my youth. But if it is... My memory of him was during the 80's and he was a horse rider on trail rides with friends of his. We all went to different saddle clubs for the trail rides. He and his friends were older than I was, they were single young men in their late teens into their early 20's with their whole life in front of them. He was a lot of laughs and a true gentleman to this young girl 12-14. When I think of "Whiteside", those are the memories I have a young man laughing, riding his horse and his future in front of him!

Condolences to his family, again I hope that I haven't made a mistake and this is the wrong person.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Wanda Dutton Oliver
