“ Dream of Carrying Natalie

I hold my arms out straight to the sides, hoping I can lift her, lovely exhausted Natalie in shirt of grey her black hair blowing, and she stands behind me, stretches her arms out along mine and I lift, we rise up, stars blowing such an upsweep of relief – I am strong enough and she is so light.

*Natalie and I are drifting now.
Somewhere below
the fragments of her broken son come together,
knit themselves closed.
We see boys running.
Surely that one's Logan whole again.*
