“ We always loved Sister Louise and Brother Junior. They treated you the same anywhere they saw you. She will be missed by all who knew her. God bless you all.

“ Louise was always a sweet and caring person. She was my cousin, and she was about 4 years older than me. I remember when she was a teenage bride and she and Jr were so happy. When Betsy was born, she was a wonderful mother, and very patient with Teressa. She took care of Betty and Teressa and seemed to enjoy every moment of being a mother. When she and Jr first married, they had car seats for their first living room furniture, and that was not unusual for those times. The last time I saw her, which was more than 15 years ago, she had a lovely home and was still taking care of Teressa and being a loving mother. We did not stay in contact, but every memory of her, and any news I heard about her, showed she was a wonderful lady devoted to her family. Rest in peace dear Louise, we will never forget you, and we will remember you as an example of a kind, loving person, who made this world better for your presence.
