“Marilyn, so sorry to hear of the passing of sweet Margaret! I will always have fond growing up memories of the many visits to our home in the Big Bend in Oklahoma. She was a beautiful, classy lady with a warm spirit and welcoming smile. She seemed more like family to the Morris family! I will always cherish the sweet memories. She is forever rejoicing in heaven and will be waiting for the great family reunion day! Love and prayers sent to you and all the family.

“Marilyn, Kevin, and family;

May you each be granted Peace from our Dear Heavenly Father, King JESUS, and His Holy Spirit in this time of sadness. May each of you, yet again, also receive in it's place GOD's Joy and Comfort in knowing that Margaret is Alive and Well in the Presence of The KING! She now sees, clearly, HIM Who Is Invisible!!!

Grace, Mercy, and Peace to each of you; In JESUS Precious Name!!!

“ Marilyn, Sending you big hugs - one of my favorite memories of your mom was her desserts - they were always so good! She also is the person who introduced me to Pomegranates! Each time I eat one, she comes to mind :-) Praying for all of you and sending my love.
