“ From all your co workers at maples, Maria, you will be missed. I can only imagine the glorious and wonderful things which you are experiencing right now. The Lord has granted you with His ultimate gift, He has called you home to be with Him. I pray your loved ones can find comfort this holiday season knowing the Lord has His loving arms around you as they grieve. May the Lord comfort them through the holidays and all the days to come. Your co worker and friend. Nicole H....

“ Maria, I just can't believe you're gone! There are far too many memories with you to share. You have been a part of my life for so long. The amazing Grandmother to my babies, and most of all, one of the greatest and most caring friends I've ever had as well as a 2nd mom to me. We were all blessed to have known and loved you. As well as been loved by you! I know you're shining down on all of those you loved and who loved you. I will never forget you and I will always miss you terribly. Today is not the same world without you in it and I'm just at a loss for words. I love you so much!

“ My beloved friend. A beautiful woman that stole my heart. One year ago almost to this day I promised her she would appear as the main female character in my book Sky High. She was astounded and grateful--not as grateful as I was in having her my friend. She will be immortalized in print now, with the full dedication. I miss her so terribly. A part of me is gone forever. Love and loved her always--
