“ Mrs. Ragsdale was a sweet person. She taught my husband when he was in school and my two oldest boys. She came by my table at the farmers market and bought vegetables from me for several years. She didn't come this year and I wondered where she was. I didn't know she was sick. My condolences to her family

“ Mrs. Ragsdale was one of my favorite teachers in early elementary. But more than that, she is one of the people from back home who kept up with me and how and what I was doing into my adulthood. She cheered me on in my career and family life. She will be so missed. Hopes for peace for the family. I know you loved her. So many of her students did too. I am but one of them. ❤️
