“ Odell Dukes was my Sunday School teacher when I was growing up. He apologized saying he didn't know how to read, would have the boys in his class read aloud the scriptures. But obviously he was familiar with the verses and the lessons. His guidance was practical and straightforward. Mr. Dukes was a kind man. It was clear he loved us. Now I have served as a pastor for many years. I credit Odell Dukes and others similar of love for the Lord for steering me in the right direction. And may God bless all who love and miss him. Soon we will see him again.

“ A fine Christian man. He and my dad (Floyd Gravitt) worked together for years--they made a great team. When I think of O'dell, I think of justice and mercy--he embodied both. Maybe he and Dad can work together again in heaven on the new Jerusalem! Our heartfelt sympathy to the family, David & Gwen Hill

“ We are so sorry to hear of O’dell’s passing. He was one of the kindest, Christian gentlemen that we’ve ever known. We sure enjoyed his friendship at Second Baptist Church. We will be holding Mrs. Joyce and his family close in prayer! Scot & Angie Shankles
