We had developed a close relationship the last few years. I was blessed to get to take him to Dr visits and just sitting and talking with him at his home. This past June 8 he came to visit which happened to be my birthday. He ask if I wanted to go to Jacks and get a chicken sandwich. So we went and ate together. He loved those chicken sandwiches. I sure will miss him.

I'm so glad God gave us an opportunity to say good bye to my papaw. My daughter contacted me and said we are going just a few days prior to our heading to AL. She has never made the plans before, it was always me. With no hesitation off we went. We got to see papaw on Friday and he waved to me. Saturday morning he graduated to heaven (Richard I love that you said that papaw grauated to heaven) God works all things together for good! Gods word is truly trustworthy. Thank you Jesus! Rest in Peace papaw. I Love You!

“ I never will forget that Ralph & brother Jim taught me how to "flip" a pulpwood stick to get the wood loaded faster. He also kept me from making some bad decisions as a young man. Great memories of him.
