“ So sorry for your loss. But I have no doubt he is in a much better place. He and Aunt Ruth were the most loving, caring people I've ever known. Not only toward each other but to ever single person they ever came in contact with. You could just feel the love when Uncle Ralph put his arm around you and you had no doubt it was sincere. They also raised two very special daughters and instilled that true heart in them also. We will miss you Uncle Ralph but can smile just knowing how good you are doing now. Until we meet again. We love you and your dear family, Kenneth(Gomer), Jan, Chad, Brittany,Kinlee, Marlee, Lucas, Preslee, and Emoree Patterson

“ Uncle Ralph had always been a special person to me. As long as I can remember he would pinch me under the arm. That was his way of showing his love. Oh we did have some great times growing up. I love him so much.

“ Rest in peace Mr. Patterson.

Ralph and Ruth was so sweet and kind when my Jennybug went to her forever home. I will never forget them. Some folks make an impression in your life and Ralph was one of those. He produced some yummy veggies in his garden. He will be missed by all that knew him.
