“ Steve was my first love. God brought him into my life to introduce me to Him my Heavenly Father. I'll always be grateful to him for that. We've remained friends thanks to his lovely wife Charlotte. My prayers are with the family. God bless you and sustain you with wonderful memories 🙏🕊️

“ Steve was my coworker and friend. I enjoyed the time we had going to lunch talking about football, politics, religion and our families. Steve always enjoyed a good laugh and a good meal. Yesterday at work I kept hearing what a sweet and kind man he was. Steve was a gentle giant.

We know where he is now, and I look forward to seeing him again.

“ Steve was my little league softball coach (with his dad) and one of my best friends in my college years. A group of us spent many nights cruising Montgomery, Atlanta, and 13 bridges road. My heart hurts for his family but we know where he is. It's not goodbye, but see you later dear friend. Love from your “HaHa, Fruitloops” IYKYK
