“ I didn't have the pleasure in recent years of being around sweet Mr. Norman Waldrop and his children. But I grew up hearing him and my Uncle Arvel Bouldin teaching singing schools together, singing with Norman over many years at the annual Stamps Baxter singings with dinner on the group. And, while, I was in high school at Plainview/Rainsville, Uncle Arvel and Mr. Norman would pick me up from school to sing with them at funerals. I was the alto. Too, Roger's grandmother and Mr. Norman's mother, Biddie, was sister to my great-grandmother, Masiler (Mozella) Overton, wife of Wiley Jackson Clifton. I regret much not making a way to keep in touch with all the Waldrop family over the years. I can see Norman in my mind's eye with his smile and can hear him singing. May God's richest blessing and comfort be with the family of Roger Dell Waldrop and with all the Waldrop family.

“ One of my fondest memories is that of working for the Waldrops in the potato harvest the summer of 1968. Working on the back of the potato harvester was hard work, but being around Roger and Shorty made it worthwhile! Wesley Hardman
