Dearest Nellie, Phillip, Debbie and Amanda, Frank and I and our children are saddened at this time of Ronald's passing. We have been praying for the comfort that only our Lord can provide. I find that I am still unable to deal well with the loss of my Daddy and I know very well just how deeply that hurt is. I didn't really know Ronald that well but from what I've been reading, he was a fine man! I'm sure God will look very favorably upon his soul. The wonderful part is that Ronald is no longer suffering pain or sickness and that's a great blessing. But we who are left, will still mourn his absence now and for a long time to come. I pray God will bless all who cared for and loved Ronald, and that HE, who can do all things, will lighten our burdens of sadness and all the emotions that are present at this difficult time. Know that we love you all and our hearts are hurting right along with yours, now, and in the days, months, and time to come. With much love, we send our deepest condolences.

“ Aunt Nellie, Phillip, Debbie and Amanda, I am deeply sorry for the loss of your husband and father. There really aren't any words that bring a great deal of comfort during this type of loss, however your faith in God, and your family can bring you a bit of condolences during this time. Just know there are several who have been down this road and if you ever just want to talk or cry we are here! Love you all
