“ My husband and I, EJ Brown, have known Ryan since his mother, dad and siblings moved to Section approximately 25 years ago. EJ and Wes, Ryan’s dad, developed a friendship quickly as they both loved cars, tools, guns, and general manly topics. They sometimes rode together as reserve police officers for the town of Section. Of course , Jan and I, too, became friends. At this time Ryan, Hunter, David and Michael were young boys. Quite frequently during the summer their family came to our house to swim in our pool. I served on the JCBOE and often saw the boys at school. As often , when persons age, they drift apart. I remember Ryan getting married , having a daughter and working at Walmart. We had not heard from them in a long while and were very surprised to learn of Ryan’s passing. We extend our deepest sympathy to this family and pray that God wraps His loving arms around them, bringing them peace, comfort and understanding. God bless them now and in the days ahead.~~EJ &Brenda Brown~~Section

“ I have to share Ryan’s Papa Pete favorite story....Ryan was just a toddler, still in a high chair, Papa Pete took him and his Mom out to eat. Ryan was asked what he wanted and his answer was “Chocolate milk!” Jan says “you can have chocolate milk but you have to eat your food first. They brought the food and milk and Jan put the milk out of Ryan’s reach. Ryan began reach for the chocolate milk ,swinging arms and kicking feet and throwing food. Jan, trying to get some motherly control, finally handed him the milk, he took a look at it and tossed it in the floor too. When they started to leave, the man at the table nearest them, said “ I believe that boy wanted some Chocolate milk!”

Papa Pete loved that story and told it over and over. I’ll bet that he and Ryan are laughing about it right now up in Heaven.

“ Visiting Georgia every summer growing up was always my favorite because I got to play with my cousins. We played baseball with a wiffle ball and bat for hours and one of my last summers we went fishing in Alabama with Ryan and his brothers.

It’s been way too long since I made it up there but I sure do love and miss my Georgia family.

My heart and prayers are with each that know Ryan 💙 Love you Jan and Wes more than you know.

“ We met the Phillips family when our son Joseph and Ryan were seven years old. They lived two houses down the road from us. They became instant friends. Even though they had different personalities they complimented each other so well. They spent many afternoons together doing little boy things. After about one year the family moved away. Ryan's mom and I decided we needed to continue to let the boys see each other if possible. We would meet on the interstate half way between our homes to let them spend some week-ends together. Ryan was a part of our family for many years. He was with us on summer vacations, snow skiing trips, camping trips, playing paint ball and a deep sea fishing trip. As life goes they grew into young adults and life took them in different directions. We may not have had the close contact with Ryan we once had, but we have over ten years of beautiful memories of him in our lives He will never be forgotten because he lives on in our hearts and mind. Ryan, you will never be forgotten.
We love you,
The Watters family

“ When I was only 20 years old I worked at maples, and Ryan was my operator. He would teach me when he could to do the job he did. He was such a kind person and spoke so highly of his family at that time. He will truly be missed:(
