“ I worked side by side with Sandy for many years. I loved her sense of humor and her wry remarks. She was a great nurse and friend! Sandy loved her family, Fort Payne, Alabama and the Eagles! She used to tell us stories about all the concerts she went to..I know you will miss her so much! And she was one of the last people I knew to finally switch her flip-phone to an apple phone. (We were dinosaurs together) We used to help each other when we got stuck on “the cows.” (The med carts) Sandy made me laugh a lot! I loved Sandy and I am so sorry. But she is up there in Heaven looking over her family 🙏🌈
