“ Sheila and I grew up together, went to Antioch church, went home with each other, played piano and took lessons. We learned a lot together. she was a wonderful cousin and friend. She did not deserve the pain she has gone through! She is free now and has no pain. I love you, Sheila!

TO

Shelia was one of the sweetest persons you will ever know. Her constant smile, her kind words, and her gentle grace are a model for all of us. Hers was a life well lived. Rest In Peace.

Shelia was one of the kindest thoughtful people I've ever know. We were classmates from day one and she was an integral part of our class then and 50 yrs later. She will be missed by many. The life she lived should be an example to us all. May you rest in peace.

I remember her when we visited Alabama. I met her at your church. She was very nice to be - and we had the same name "Sheila".
