“ I have had so many happy childhood memories with Carson. I have put my feet under their table many, many times. With Sister Sue around I definitely never went hungry! She always had the best goodies. After church services , Carson and I had so much fun going to each other's homes. Sister Sue was always so warm and kind. Going to their home always felt like such an adventure. I never knew what fun we would get into. I have missed those days with them. She was such a precious Child of God and I'm sad to know she's gone on. But Heaven has gained an angel!❤️
