“ Vance, like his dad, had a big strong physical presents that without his knowledge always made a quiet statement for honesty, right and good in any gathering he attended. He loved God, his children, his family and his friends. He was was fiercely loyal, good hearted and fun to be with. Truly a friends friend. My family and I only got tiny moments with Vance compared to those that worked and lived with him but hose moments are sweet in our memories and will live with us forever.

“ No matter what was going on, I could always count on that smile and something to chuckle about. I had not talked to him much over the last few years, but I believed he was a friend that would come running if I needed him. You will be missed here on Earth but you are in Glory now.
