“ I visualize uncle Verlon as the Finest most truthful honorable Christian man I've ever in my lifetime known. I was 4 years old when he and my Aunt Mary Ruth married, so he's been in my life for 67 or 68 years. My Uncle never spoke above a barely hearable tone until he was behind the pulpit preaching. He always spoke the truth, not only spoke the truth, but walked in truth all his life. He Never bragged about anything. He would edify everyone, never taking the self owned (shall I say) glory of anything he so humbly did.

He loved all his friends and neighbors as himself. There was Never any scandal about him in his life. Men like Uncle Verlon are extremely Rare.

I trusted him, his word and all he did.
He never gossiped about anyone.
He was modest to the highest degree.

Uncle Verlon made everyone feel important to him, he would talk with any as long as they needed him to. I can't count the times where he prayed for me when i asked him to.

He was very unselfish and would give to his last penny to whomever needed it.
Uncle was a genuine father to me when I needed one.

I am So Happy for Uncle Verlon to live eternally in the house of God, although as a human I shall miss him intensely wishing I could sit and talk with him. He treated my husband Daniel as a son, I was SO thrilled for his love of my husband.

If offered cake or pie, he would always say let Sharon get it, she's so sweet. He knew that I knew, I always gave him the largest piece. It was funny, but was my delight.

Thank you will never be enough to give you for your love. There is nothing I could have given you except for the great pride I had in being your niece and a part of your wonderful blessed family.

I will miss you Uncle Verlon so INTENSLY. I look forward to the day I can look at that big smile on your face, and give you a hug.

*Love eternally,
