

Viola Glenn Choate

May 15, 1948 - July 20, 2025

Viola Glenn Choate, a devoted mother, grandmother, and woman of deep Christian faith, passed away 7/20/25 surrounded by her loving family. She lived her life guided by her strong belief in the Ten Commandments and the importance of baptism in Jesus's name, values she held close to her heart and demonstrated daily through her words and actions.

She was a wonderful mother—steadfast, nurturing, and endlessly devoted to her children, whom she loved deeply and unconditionally. Her children returned that love with great admiration and gratitude, always knowing they were cherished and supported.

She found immeasurable joy in being an active part of her grandchildren's lives. Her special care, wisdom, and warm presence left an indelible mark on their hearts. Whether it was a kind word, a shared moment, or a lesson in faith or life, she made each child feel uniquely loved.

A lover of God's creation, she found peace and happiness tending to her yard and caring for her plants and flowers. Her green thumb was a reflection of her nurturing spirit—gentle, attentive, and full of life.
