“ Wanda was my friend for a very long time (since the 1950s) from school, church, and as married folks. She and Pete and my ex-husband Larry Norris and I spent many late nights playing cards. We kept in contact through the mail and telephone calls after they moved to Alabama. She and Pete were excited to be parents and welcomed David and Angela with open arms. She hosted my bridal shower and housewarming parties back in the 1960's. I know her family will miss her and I will miss talking to her and hearing all the news about the family. Last time I saw her was when she and Pete were in Florida visiting relatives and they stopped by the furniture store where I was working. My thoughts are with all of you.
